

SaddleBrooke
Rotary Club

NEW MEMBER APPLICATION

[PRINT LEGIBLY]

Thank you for your interest in joining the SaddleBrooke Rotary Club. We seek members who live or work in Southern Arizona. Prospective members agree to Service - Rotary's motto is Service Above Self.

Attendance - Rotarians commit to attend two or more meetings each month. You can make up a missed meeting at any of the 1.2 million Rotary clubs spread across the world, you can also make up online. Service projects, committee meetings and board meetings also count as a makeup, so you have flexible ways to attend at least two meetings monthly.

Participation - Each club member is asked to help with annual fundraisers, to serve on a committee(s), to participate in local service projects and to rotate in to club leadership positions.

Financial Support - Annual dues at SBRC are $250 payable in June. Annual dues are paid to support the operations of Rotary International and our local Rotary District 5500. Additionally, each member is expected to play in or contribute the Golf Entry Fee to Fore For Kid's Golf Fundraiser held every April.

Every Rotarian Every Year - Rotarians around the world are encouraged to voluntarily support the Rotary Foundation by contributing $100 or more annually to RI Foundation.

Membership Recruiting – Members of the SaddleBrooke Rotary Club are expected to recruit new members.

The main focus of Rotary is summed up in our motto, Service Above Self. We ask that members participate in lines of service as defined by Rotary International.
