

This list assigning only the Thought of the Day goes from Oct 1 to the end of 2020. Due to meeting on ZOOM, the other duties have been suspended until further notice. President Matt Jones, Program chair John DeSanto and those on Leave of absence are exempted.

Remembering that our Rotary International celebrates diversity, Thought of the Day can be serious or lighthearted. Something to invoke reflection or celebration. Some people will opt for a meditational or spiritual thought. The choice is yours. Your Rotarian magazine often has some articles with interesting and memorable soundbites that you can quote or paraphrase. You can also Google “Rotary invocation” or “Rotary Thought of the day”

Remember, if you are unable to attend the assigned meeting, you are responsible for trading or finding a replacement and letting John DeSanto, and Matt Jones know.
