

Rotary stands for the advancement of understanding, goodwill, and international peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men and women united in the ideal of service. You have been approved for membership in this Club because we believe you to be a worthy representative of your vocation or profession, interested in the ideals of Rotary, and willing to do your share in translating them into tangible realities.

Knowing the obligations imposed by Rotary, you are now asked to make the following declaration. Please repeat after me:

"I accept the honor of membership || in the Rotary Club of John's Creek || with the obligations attached thereto. || I pledge myself to render || the most willing and efficient service || of which I am capable. || To attend regularly all meetings || and to do my utmost || to carry out the Rotary Motto || of service above self. "

_____, and _____, I welcome you into the world-wide fellowship of Rotary as an active member of this Club, and while your sponsor presents the Rotary pin to you, I propose a standing ovation by our members!
