11. From your FAFSA application, what is the Expected Family Contribution (EFC)?* $ _____

*A number of factors are considered in selecting students to be awarded. One of these factors is financial need. If you want your financial need to be considered, please answer this question. If you do not, you may omit the answer.

Note: The Costs (No. 9) and the sources of funds (No. 10) should be equal.

You may include a few paragraphs on a separate sheet describing your financial need in greater detail if you desire. Financial need is an important consideration for the Pueblo West Rotary Club.

12. This award is limited to an aggregate amount, after the inclusion of all grants and other scholarships not to exceed 100% of campus living expense of room and board, plus tuition, books and student fees; to students not living on campus, up to the aggregate sum and not to exceed 100% of tuition, books and student fees, plus $5,000 to cover living expenses and commuting costs. Any amounts awarded which exceed this sum shall be returned to the Pueblo West Rotary Club promptly upon determination.

13. The scholarship is for one year, but may be renewed upon application. The scholarship funds are paid directly to the accounting office of the college or university selected by the recipient.

14. I, the undersigned, agree to provide at the completion of each semester the following required official documentation:

1. Past semester with completed classes, GPA and Cumulative GPA (transcript). (Incoming 1st semester freshmen excluded.)
2. Credit hours completed. (Incoming 1st semester freshmen excluded)
3. Official class schedule of incoming semester classes and hours. (Incoming 1st semester freshmen included)

Failure to comply with these stipulations within 15 days of the most recent completed semester will result in the loss of scholarship.

If I have extenuating circumstances I agree to immediately contact the committee via member Kay Gillen at gillenkltl@q.com to seek a waiver.
