

Lowell Rotary Corporate Membership

A corporate membership allows up to three people from the same company to rotate their attendance from week to week. A corporate member may name three people as designees, of which one shall be designated as corporate member executive designee.

- Only one meal is provided each week, additional corporate members will be asked to pay $10 if more than one designee attends the same weekly meeting
- All corporate member designees may attend club social events and community service projects together
- Each corporate member designee will receive the Paddlewheel and all other local club communications
- The Rotarian Magazine and other communication from Rotary International and District 6290 will be sent to the company in the name of the designee executive
- Club bills will be addressed to corporate member designee executive and shall be the responsibility of the corporation
- Each corporate member designee shall be inducted as a club member
- Corporate membership includes a rotating banner ad on the Lowell Rotary website and corporate listing in the Paddlewheel
- The corporate member will be represented by the corporate member designee executive for purposes of Rotary International and District 6290
- The Rotary International membership will be held by the corporate member designee executive and dues will be paid to Rotary International and District 6290 based on the corporate member designee executive
- The corporate member will only be recognized internally by the club until such time that Rotary International offers clear policy on corporate memberships
- All designees are eligible to serve on club committees
- Only the corporate member designee executive is eligible for Board service
- A corporate member may have one vote for club elections and voting

The dues for a corporate membership are $850 annually.
