This Week: Education

Our scheduled speaker this week is Arthur Kimball of the Riverside County Department of Education. Arthur serves as a Principal and oversees some of the county alternative education efforts. He works with kids who have been expelled or incarcerated. Part of his job is to attempt to get those young people back into the mainstream educational system.

Arthur's job covers a huge area...from Riverside to Blythe.

Please let Lillian Roberts know of any program ideas for future meetings. Our valley is full of interesting people and organizations so let's share some of them with our members! See you Wednesday!

Tour de Palm Springs Fundraiser

We're continuing to prepare for our new Tour de Palm Springs fundraiser. Please turn in your raffle ticket monies this week and, if you have not yet done so, please sign up to work the Beer and Wine Garden on February 7 or 8. There are just a handful of time slots still available. Our club will be able to keep 100% of the raffle ticket sale proceeds and P2P will receive a share of the Beer and Wine Garden proceeds based on the number of volunteer hours we put in. Links to sign up for a shift in the Beer and Wine Garden are included in this week's P2P Newsletter email. Let's earn some money for future Palms To Pines projects!

Last Week: Habitat For Humanity

Last week we heard from Herb Claggett about his Habitat For Humanity trip to Guatemala. Herb was one of 14 volunteers who helped Mayans complete two outhouses, seven stoves and start a house. He shared lots of photos of the trip. Habitat has helped 29 million people in the US and 70 other countries and will be building two homes in Indio this year. Thanks, Herb, for a great program!

RIP Ken Roberts

It is with sadness we report the passing of Palms To Pines Rotary Honorary Member Ken Roberts. As a member of Palm Desert Noon Rotary, Ken was instrumental in the founding of our club. He helped to organize our club and became a charter member of Palm Desert Palms To Pines Rotary. He served as P2P President in 1886-1987 and went on to serve as District 5330 Governor in 1992-1993. Ken and wife Jeni relocated to Pennsylvania in 2005 and both remained active in Rotary. This year, Jeni is serving as her club's President. Fittingly, Ken's theme during his year as District Governor was "Rotary – A Way of Life". Ken truly exemplified Service Above Self.
