

Irondequoit Garden Walks 2025 will offer a variety of educational opportunities for all ages to interact with novice, self-taught and experienced Master Gardeners.

The event is free to all participants and attendees. However, that doesn't mean the planning and running of this community-wide event is free of expenses. Your financial support is essential to enable our hardworking team of community volunteers in their successful launch of this annual event.

We hope that you will recognize this as an opportunity to not only invest in your community, but also to introduce your enterprise to an enthusiastic new audience of people who are passionate about gardening and who share your pride in the community of Irondequoit.
