

Rotary Club Bylaws Bylaws of the Rotary Club of SWEETWATER, TEXAS

Article I. Definitions

1. Board: The Board of Directors of this club.
2. Director: A member of this club's Board of Directors.
3. Member: A member, other than an honorary member, of this club.
4. Quorum: One third of the club membership; a majority of directors for the Board
5. RI: Rotary International.
6. Year: The twelve-month period that begins on 1 July.

Article 2. Board

The governing body of the club shall be the board consisting of 7 members of this club, namely, seven (7) directors selected in accordance with article 3, section 1, of these bylaws, and the president, the president-elect, the secretary/treasurer, the Past District Governor (if present), and the immediate past president.

Article 3. Election of Directors and Officers

Section 1 - At a regular meeting the Club President shall appoint the immediate past club president to serve as chairperson, 2 past presidents, the president-elect, the Past District Governor, and the secretary/treasurer. The president elected shall serve as a director for the year commencing on the first day of July next following the selection, and shall assume office as president on the first day of July immediately following that year.

Section 2 - The officers and directors together with the immediate past president shall constitute the board. Within one week after their selection, the directors shall meet and select some member of the club to act as sergeant-at-arms. Sergeant-at-arms shall not be a board position, nor shall it constitute a vote on the board.

Section 3 - A vacancy in the board or any office shall be filled by action of the remaining board members.

Article 4. Duties of Officers

Section 1 - President - It shall be the duty of the president to preside at meetings of the club and to perform other duties as ordinarily pertains to the office of president. The most immediate Past-President will preside at meetings of the club in the absence of the president

Section 2 - President-elect - It shall be the duty of the President-elect to perform duties as ordinarily pertains to the office of President-elect.

Section 3 - Secretary - It shall be the duty of the secretary to keep membership records; record attendance at meetings; send out notices of club, board and committee meetings; record and preserve the minutes of such meetings; report as required to RI, including the semiannual reports of membership on 1 January and 1 July of each year, and prorated reports on 1 October and 1 April of each active member who has been elected to membership in the club since the start of the July or January semiannual reporting period, report changes in membership; provide the monthly attendance report, which shall be made to the district governor within 15 days of the last meeting of the month; collect and remit RI official magazine subscriptions; and perform other duties as usually pertain to the office of secretary.

Section 4 - Treasurer - It shall be the duty of the treasurer to have custody of all funds, accounting for it to the club annually and at any other time upon demand by the board, and to perform other duties as pertains to the office of treasurer. Upon retirement from office, the treasurer shall turn over to the incoming treasurer or to the president all funds, books of accounts, or any other club property.

Section 5 - Sergeant-at-Arms - The duties of the sergeant-at-arms shall be such as are usually prescribed for such office and other duties as may be prescribed by the president or the board. Sergeant-at-Arms shall not be a board position, nor shall it constitute a vote on the board.

Section 6 - Director - A Director shall attend club and Board meetings.

Section 7 - Board members may perform additional duties as assigned.

Article 5. Meetings

Section 1 - Annual Meeting - An annual meeting of this club shall be held in the month of December in each year, at which time the election of officers and directors to serve for the ensuing year shall take place. (Note: Article 5, section 2 of the standard Rotary club constitution provides that "An annual meeting for the election of officers shall be held not later than 31 December...")

Section 2 – Weekly Meeting - The regular weekly meetings of this club shall be held on Monday (day) at Noon (time). Due notice of any changes in or canceling of the regular meeting shall be given to all members of the club. All members excepting an honorary member in good standing in this club, on the day of the regular meeting, must be counted as present or absent, and attendance must be evidenced by the member's being present for at least sixty (60) percent of the time devoted to the regular meeting, either at this club or at any other Rotary club, or as otherwise provided in the standard Rotary club constitution, article 8, sections 1 and 2.

Section 3 – Quorum - One-third of the membership shall constitute a quorum at the annual and regular meetings of this club.

Section 4 – Board of Directors Meetings - Regular meetings of the board shall be held monthly. Special meetings of the board shall be called by the president, whenever deemed necessary, or upon the request of two (2) directors, due notice having been given.

Section 5 – Board of Directors Quorum - A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum of the board.

Article 6. Fees and Dues

Section 1 – There is no admission fee.

Section 2 - The membership dues shall be $720.00 per annum, payable monthly or quarterly. Membership dues shall consist of RI per capita dues, subscription fee to the RI official magazine, district per capita dues, club dues and meals.

Article 7. Method of Voting

The business of this club shall be transacted by *viva voce vote except the election of officers and directors, which shall be by ballot. The board may determine that a specific resolution be considered by ballot rather than by viva voce vote. (Note: Viva voce vote is defined as when club voting is conducted by vocal assent.)

Article 8. Five Avenues of Service

The five Avenues of Service are the philosophical and practical framework for the work of this Rotary club. They are Club Service, Vocational Service, Community Service, Youth Service and International Service. This club will be active in each of the five Avenues of Service.

Article 9. Committees

Club committees are charged with carrying out the annual and long-range goals of the club based on the five Avenues of Service. The president-elect, president and immediate past president should work together to ensure continuity of leadership and succession planning. When feasible, committee members should be appointed to the same committee for three years to ensure consistency. The president-elect is responsible for appointing committee members to fill vacancies, appointing committee chairs and conducting planning meetings prior to the start of the year in office. It is recommended that the chair have previous experience as a member of the committee. Standing committees should be appointed as follows:

- Membership
 - This committee should develop and implement a comprehensive plan for the recruitment and retention of members.
- Club Public Relations
 - This committee should develop and implement plans to provide the public with information about Rotary and to promote the club's service projects and activities.
- Club Administration
 - This committee should conduct activities associated with the effective operation of the club.
- Service Projects

- This committee should develop and implement educational, humanitarian and vocational projects that address the needs of its community and communities in other countries.
- The Rotary Foundation
 - This committee should develop and implement plans to support The Rotary Foundation through both financial contributions and program participation.

Additional ad hoc committees may be appointed as needed.

- A. The president shall be ex officio a member of all committees and, as such, shall have all the privileges of membership thereon.
- B. Each committee shall transact its business as is delegated to it in these bylaws and such additional business as may be referred to it by the president or the board. Except where special authority is given by the board, such committees shall not take action until a report has been made and approved by the board.
- C. Each chair shall be responsible for regular meetings and activities of the committee, shall supervise and coordinate the work of the committee and shall report to the board on all committee activities.

(Note: The above committee structure is in harmony with both the District Leadership Plan and the Club Leadership Plan. Clubs have the discretion to create any committees that are required to effectively meet its service and fellowship needs. A sample listing of such optional committees is found in The Club Committee Manual. A club may develop a different committee structure as needed.)

Article 10. Duties of Committees

The duties of all committees shall be established and reviewed by the president for his or her year. In declaring the duties of each, the president shall make reference to appropriate RI materials. The service project committee will consider vocational service, community service and international service avenues when developing plans for the year.

Each committee shall have a specific mandate, clearly defined goals, and action plans established by the beginning of each year for implementation during the course of the year. It shall be the primary responsibility of the president-elect to provide the necessary leadership to prepare a recommendation for club committees, mandates, goals and plans for presentation to the board in advance of the commencement of the year as noted above.

Article 11. Leave of Absence

Upon written application to the board, setting forth good and sufficient cause, leave of absence may be granted excusing a member from attending the meetings of the club for a specified length of time. (Note: Such leave of absence does operate to prevent a forfeiture of membership; it does not operate to give the club credit for the member's attendance.)

Article 12. Finances

Section 1 – Prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, the board shall prepare a budget of estimated income and expenditures for the year, which shall stand as the limit of expenditures for these purposes, unless otherwise ordered by action of the board.

Section 2 – The treasurer shall deposit all club funds in a bank, named by the board.

Section 3 – All bills shall be paid by the treasurer or other authorized officer only when approved by two other officers or directors.

Section 4 – A thorough review of all financial transactions by a qualified person shall be made once each year.

Section 5 – Officers having charge or control of club funds shall give bond as required by the board for the safe custody of the funds of the club, cost of bond to be borne by the club.

Section 6 – The fiscal year of this club shall extend from 1 July to 30 June, and for the collection of members' dues shall be divided into two (2) semiannual periods extending from 1 July to 31 December, and from 1 January to 30 June. The payment of per capita dues and RI official magazine subscriptions shall be made on 1 July and 1 January of each year on the basis of the membership of the club on those dates.

Article 13. Method of Electing Members

Section 1 – The name of a prospective member, proposed by an active member of the club, shall be submitted to the board in writing, through the club secretary. A transferring or former member of another club may be proposed to active membership by the former club. The proposal shall be kept confidential except as otherwise provided in this procedure.

Section 2 – The board shall ensure that the proposal meets all the classification and membership requirements of the standard Rotary club constitution.

Section 3 – The board shall approve or disapprove the proposal within 30 days of its submission, and shall notify the proposer, through the club secretary, of its decision.

Section 4 – If the decision of the board is favorable, the prospective member shall be informed of the purposes of Rotary and of the privileges and responsibilities of membership, following which the prospective member shall be requested to sign the membership proposal form and to permit his or her name and proposed classification to be published to the club.

Section 5 – If no written objection to the proposal, stating reasons, is received by the board from any member (other than honorary) of the club within seven (7) days following publication of information about the prospective member, that person, as prescribed in these bylaws, shall be considered to be elected to membership. If any such objection has been filed with the board, it shall vote on this matter at its next meeting. If approved despite the objection, the proposed member, upon payment of the admission fee (if not honorary membership), shall be considered to be elected to membership.

Section 6 – Following the election, the president shall arrange for the new member's induction, membership card, and new member Rotary literature. In addition, the president or secretary will report the new member information to RI and the president will assign a member to assist with the new member's assimilation to the club as well as assign the new member to a club project or function.

Section 7 – The club may elect, in accordance with the standard Rotary club constitution, honorary members proposed by the board.

Article 14. Resolutions

The club shall not consider any resolution or motion to commit the club on any matter until the board has considered it. Such resolutions or motions, if offered at a club meeting, shall be referred to the board without discussion

Article 15. Order of Business

Meeting called to order. Introduction of visitors. Correspondence, announcements and Rotary Information. Committee reports if any. Any unfinished business. Any new business. Address or other program features. Adjournment.

Article 16. Amendments

These bylaws may be amended at any regular meeting, a quorum being present, by a two-thirds vote of all members present, provided that notice of such proposed amendment shall have been mailed to each member at least ten (10) days before such meeting. No amendment or addition to these bylaws can be made which is not in harmony with the standard Rotary club constitution and with the constitution and bylaws of RI.
