Why Join Rotary?

- Rotary was founded on fellowship. Members enjoy the camaraderie of other professionals.
- Rotarians meet weekly to expand their circle of business and professional acquaintances.
- Club members have many opportunities to live Rotary's motto of "Service above Self" by participating in service projects both locally and internationally.
- Membership provides enhanced leadership experiences by providing opportunities to motivate, inspire and guide others.
- Social activities give Rotarians a chance to have fun and mingle with friends and families.
