President Bill reminded us that the Share the Warmth Boxes were not put out yet. They needed some assembly. Joe Barrett will help Bill and Tom put together and take to the Shur Save.

It was discussed to have a holiday dinner and decided to have it December 15th. Cindy will send out sign-up sheet to bring a dish to pass.

We discussed the 90th Anniversary of our club and tabled the discussion until after the holidays.

Ben Guthrie told us that he had 19 Waterfall calendars left and Darlynn will take them to her store to sell. If anyone wants one, please contact Darlynn.

A reminder that Winterfest will be December 3rd and we will be making popcorn and hot chocolate.

Cindy presented the idea of having our meeting on the 5th Thursday at a restaurant in Trumansburg. The next 5th Thursday will be March 30th. Cindy will oversee getting a restaurant.

A motion was made to buy a banner to hang depicting our 90th Anniversary. The motion was passed.

President Bill thanked Mary and Joseph for the dinner.

We discussed the Foundation Dinner and complimented Darlyne on the good job she did with the Silent Auction baskets which brought in over $4000, the Foundation awards that our club received, the recognition of the Maine-Endwell Little League Team and also the wonderful speech that our RI President, John Germ, gave.

Emilie told us that she started indoor track.

Rodrigo told us that he had venison for the first time and he also started indoor track and is staying with Tom and Kathleen and loves it.

The meeting ended at 7:31 pm.
