President Scott opened the meeting with having Kathleen pass out the Profit and Loss and Balance Sheet statements. A budget will be coming out soon as we all agreed not to spend any more until we know what we are working with.

Bill O. talked about the Visioning process and want to take one week every month and talk about our visioning.

The question was asked what the difference between the Mission and Vision statements. Zoren explained that the Mission Statement is an entity and the Vision Statement is what direction the club is going.

We reviewed the Vision Statement, which Bill will have at the next meeting, and will decided if that is what we want it to say.

The next Visioning meeting will be March 3rd.

Shelly reported that last Saturday the first outbound meeting was held in Sydney. This year all the parents were invited into the sessions. This turned out to have very positive feedback.

Shelly also reminded us that at the January 28th post-holiday dinner, Cassie Proctor our outbound Exchange student to France, will be our speaker.

Cindy will bring a sign-up sheet for the dinner next week.

Nina reported that she was supposed to go to Canada but had to stay home because of a storm and she will be going skating this weekend and is looking forward to it. Also, her parents are coming in April to visit.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:00.
