President Darlynn opened up by introducing our guests, Takahito Kawahara who is a judge from Japan and he is studying criminal law at Cornell and Russ Peterson, the Trumansburg Varsity Basketball coach and his wife Elspeth plus the entire girls Varsity basketball team and, Vickie McDonald, Asaki's host mother.

Darlynn then read a Thank You note from Kendra Trimm thanking us for our help ringing the Salvation Army bell and altogether $7254.77 was collected.

Darlynn reported to the club the schedule for the upcoming months. She will make the 1st Thursday of every month a business meeting and the other days will be speakers and thanked Frank for taking on the challenge of lining up speakers.

Peggy reported that we were in the Seneca Shopper again this week.

Darlynn also stated that we need to find our old by-laws or create new ones. Cindy has found a by-laws template that she will send to everyone to try to incorporate what we need. So please take the time to read it over and come to the February 1st meeting with suggestions or recommendations.

Asaki gave us her presentation on her time here. She has really loved every minute so far and loves playing volleyball and is now trying basketball.

The meeting ended at 7:32.
