President Scott opened the meeting with acknowledging our guests, Julie Jordan, retired chef at Wegmans and our guest speaker Rene Carver from the Ulysses Philomathic Library.

Everyone was reminded that next Thursday is our post-holiday dinner and Cindy passed around a sign-up sheet for those attending. Cindy will consolidate it and send out to those absent who will be coming next week.

Peggy reported that she attended the Trumansburg Chamber meeting and gave a membership speech and how has two prospective members.

Ben Curtis reminded everyone of our pledge to have 100% Foundation giving and he has forms for anyone who would like to give.

Rene Carver gave a presentation on the solar panel project for the Ulysses Philomathic Library. Right now they have raised around $38,000 from community support and $132,000 total through all giving and grants. There is still a need for $20,000 more. Many questions were asked about the project and were answered in detail by Rene. It was an interesting talk.

Ben Curtis is going to look into starting a Trumansburg Rotary Foundation and will get back to us with the information he gets.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:57.
