President Mark and Joseph

President Mark asked members to be mindful that we will be needing a club President for the years 2016-2017. Scott Andrew is going to be the President for 2015-2016. With this, Bill and Darlynn Overbaugh spoke up and said they would follow Scott and Darlynn would be President 2016-2017 and Bill would be President 2017-2018. Thank you both for stepping up.

Our guest, Holly Bailey, spoke on her newest book "Calls Beyond Our Hearing. Unlocking the secrets of animal voices." Holly spoke about how different species of animals communicate with each other. Some have very complicated communication.

The Dryden Mystery Dinner was brought up and Brian Buttner will be here next week to promote this event.

A Thank You was read from the Trumansburg Conservatory of Fine Arts for our $1000 donation to help them with their grant and they told us that it was successful.

A Thank You was also read from Kendra Trimm thanking us for the Paul Harris Fellow award bestowed upon her late mother, Ann Russell. Kendra also thanked us for helping with the Salvation Army bell ringing. Everything we do for the community is greatly appreciated.

Lennart told us that his trip to Florida was great and they went to four parks and had a great time.

Lydia, from Brazil, who is staying with Zoren and Shelly for a month, is getting ready to leave and has had a good time during her stay.

Will Prislow, our outbound Exchange student to Denmark, told us that he is looking forward to his year abroad.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:48 pm.

HAPPY DOLLARS

$2 from President Mark for the Overbaugh's accepting the Rotary Club's Presidency for the years 2016-2017 and 2017-2018
