President Bill started out the meeting by introducing our guests, Margo Zgola (Frank's daughter) Dan Kidney (former RYLA student) and his fiancé, Lisbet and Sandy Lisk, (Durand's wife).

A Thank You was given to Mike Brainard for providing dinner.

A Thank You note was read from Andy (our 2015 Exchange Student from Mexico).

Also, a Thank You to everyone who RSVPd for dinner. It makes it a lot easier to plan our meals that way.

Cindy reported that Peggy is doing well and should be out of rehab Friday and back to a meeting next week.

Durand introduced our speaker for the evening, his wife, Sandy Lisk. Sandy spoke on the Woman's March on Washington, DC which she and Durand attended. The march was very interesting, calm and polite even with hundreds of thousands of people marching. A feeling of kindness surrounded this march.

Margo and Darlynn spoke about the march in Ithaca and Mary Guy-Sell spoke about the march in Seneca Falls. All agreed their marches were very interesting.

Rodrigo reported that he went to Greek Peak this past weekend and had a good time and he also earned his Blue Belt in Karate.

The meeting ended at 7:50.
