The meeting was brought to order by Past President Shelly at 6:33.

Shelly told us of the upcoming Mystery Dinner being sponsored by the Dryden Rotary. If you would be interested in attending, please contact Shelly to see if tickets are still available.

Shelly also told us that the Dryden Rotary would like to challenge us again to a bowling contest. The best dates are either March 8th or 9th at the Ithaca Bowl-O-Drome. Please let Shelly know if you would like to participate.

The Super Bowl BBQ is all set and cooks will be there at 8 am and servers will be there at 10:30.

Editor's note: The BBQ went off in wonderfully mild weather and we sold out by 12:30!! A BIG THANK YOU to all who helped.

Tom informed us that a new lock was installed on the Legion door. If you happen to be the first one there, you will need to go into the Legion and ask them to unlock the door. Also, if you are the last one out, you will need to go and tell them so they can lock back up.

Cindy told of the upcoming Leadership Institute training which will be held on March 22nd. There is one more slot left for anyone who would like to attend from our club and your way will be paid. Please see Cindy for details.

Maria told us that she finally finished her first semester of school. Teachers told her she was the best student. She is enjoying her new host family and they are fun to be with.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:55.

Rotary is the door to
