The meeting was brought to order at 6:38. Kathleen asked for volunteers to help with the District Conference and Frank volunteered to put up signs and Peggy will help with bag stuffing. This is what else is left that she would like the club to volunteer with: One day Jobs: Thursday night: Set up signs outside and in the convention center, Friday: Picnic: Someone to cook hamburgers and hotdogs and someone to clean tables during picnic and Final cleanup Conference-long jobs: Friday afternoon and Saturday: Room hosts for the plenary sessions and breakout sessions.

Bill Overbaugh was our speaker for the evening and he talked about the Wood Pellet Grant Ehrhart's received. The Southern Tier had the best plan they received $30 million from the state Cleaner Greener Grant. Ehrhart's grant was for Biomass for Heating. Bill showed different furnaces, delivery trucks, loading stations and storage bins available.
