President Bill started the meeting by thanking Scott and Mark for dinner.

We then talked about whom to invite for the October 27th meeting when Lana Rouff is here to talk about the opioid grant.

Pres. Bill reminded us that Saturday, October 29th is Wizarding Weekend. A discussion followed as to where to make the cake pops. It was decided to have Peggy and Char make them at the Legion. Bill will inform them.

The Foundation Dinner was discussed and everyone is encouraged to attend. This is the link to click on to register. Foundation Dinner Registration

Paying the Legion Auxiliary for the last BBQ was next and a motion was made to pay them $750 and the club will keep the $7.88. The motion was passed.

A motion was made and passed to buy a Shelter Box for Haiti and pay for it with our Election Day BBQ.

Mike Brainard talked about the Chris Bond Run and told us that the banner we purchased for the run was still not put up. Ben Guthrie will be asked to hang it at his place for the time being. We then discussed where we will need help on the day of and also the night before to set up the big tent. We are in need of pop up tents. If you have one, please let Mike know. We will need volunteers to help set up the tent the day before and many volunteers the day of the race.

Mary Bouchard told us that she will not be able to cook dinner next week and Cindy volunteered to get our meal from Smokin Bones.

The meeting ended at 8:03.
