Tom Overbaugh reminded all that District is offering a grant for club to use PR to promote their club. Grant is for $250. He suggested buying a blow-up Rotary Wheel to promote our chicken BBQs. There is also a place to attach Velcro signs on it. He will check on price, but thinks it's about $750.

Talked again about getting new members. Kathleen mentioned an article in Time magazine about young people (millennials) who are very interested in service, but not so much in weekly meetings – perhaps we can gather those people in our community for some collaboration. Melissa knows some people who are interested.

Darlynn talked about Wizarding Weekend, and thank the club for manning the Lego booth. We didn't make much money, but all had a lot of fun. Ithaca Voice selected it as #3 favorite activity of the weekend. Saturday attendance was 20,000, Sunday's 3,000, but with rain. This is a great way to connect with other organizations. Talked about plans for next year.

Election Day Chicken BBQ is all set.

Discussed ideas for meeting programs. Nov 9, Nov 30 and Dec 7 available. Tom will ask Mike Smith to come to discuss Needs Assessment in our community.

*I want to thank Kathleen Overbaugh for taking the minutes tonight as I was not able to make it.
