President Bill called the meeting together, reminding everyone that Darlyne is collecting items to fill our basket for auction at the November 13 regional dinner. Several members offered to solicit gift certificates from local merchants to add to the basket, along with wine, cider, and local cheeses.

The Election Day barbecue is coming along: Scott Andrew has secured the permit, Zoren agreed to order 180 chicken halves, Peggy to pick up another box of rubber gloves. Meet at 8:00 or 8:30 to fire up the grill and begin the fun.

Members agreed to provide hot chocolate and popcorn again for the Tru-Ulysses Winterfest this year on Saturday, December 3, during daylight hours. Bill said he'd contact the new owner of the former Life's So Sweet shop to ask if we can set up there again, and to send in the registration form. If we can't use the shop, we'll set up in the street with a propane heater. There is no charge to the club this year.

We discussed participating in the opioid abuse prevention grant spearheaded by Lana Rouff and her committee, and while there are still some questions about the potential effectiveness of the grant, members voted to contribute $1,000 to the fund. Bill offered to email the grant application to the membership for those who missed it first time around, so we'll all have more specific info. Kathleen said she has read Dreamland by Sam Quinones to learn more about addiction (reading suggested by Bill Rusen of Cayuga Addiction Recovery) and offered to bring the book in to share with others who may be interested.

Rodrigo's host family took him to dinner and gave him presents for his birthday, and he is enjoying participating in the cross-country team.
