In the absence of President Darlyne, Zoren Bullock led the meeting by starting off introducing our guests: Margo Zgola, Beverly Cleveland and Diane Cohen, Executive Director of Ithaca ReUse. Zoren then thanked Peggy for the meal tonight.

Diane Cohen gave a wonderful presentation on Ithaca ReUse and how reuse helps the community and environment. For more information on this business go to [Ithaca ReUse](http://Ithaca ReUse) and find out what a wonderful way this business is helping to save the environment.

We did not have a financial report of the Election Day BBQ but it was reported that we sold out.

Peggy asked if we wanted to continue with a membership with the Trumansburg Chamber and the Club decided to continue, and Peggy will continue to be the liaison from our club.

Asaki reported that she was on the volley ball team and they won the championship. She is now joining basketball even though she has never played before. Asaki also stated that it is very cold here and was going shopping for some winter clothes. She likes Trumansburg very much.

The meeting ended at 8:08.
