

TRUMANSBURG ROTARY MEETING MINUTES FOR 1/17/19

President Michael commended the Legion on a wonderful roast beef dinner.

Frank introduced our guest speaker, Todd Edmonds, from the Trumansburg Community Recreation. The purpose of this non-profit organization is to have a facility for the entire community to enjoy from sports, ie. Football, soccer, and baseball to swimming and hosting community events. For more information, go to Trumansburg Community Recreation

Dale Flynn, Past District Governor and Foundation Area Chair, spoke to us about the Rotary Foundation. Dale is our resource who will be working with Mary Guy-Sell.

Dale introduced our new theme for 2019-2020, “Rotary Connects The World”.

An inquiry was made about the student that was coming from Tanzania. It was reported that the Tanzanian government denied her request twice, so we will not be pursuing any longer.

President Mike reminded us that Trumansburg School Superintendent, Kimberly Bell, will be our guest speaker next week and Shelly will speak on February 7th about her Interact Club in Owego Schools.

Peggy showed us a wonderful article in the Tompkins Weekly about our Rotary Club.

We were informed that on Thursday, February 21st there will be another dinner at the Legion.

The meeting ended at 7:55.
