In the absence of President Bill, Past President Zoren Bullock run the meeting. The guests included Carolyn Lange, Nancy Compese, Melissa Bryant and Karen White. These are all past or present members of the Trumansburg School.

He then gave a Thank You to Char and Mike for the delicious dinner.

Melissa then gave an interesting presentation on the sister school in Zambia where she visited last year. During the question and answer time the prospect of getting a grant for a project in Zambia came up. Shelly will work with Ben Curtis and Kathleen Overbaugh on this.

It was reported that everything was set for Winterfest this Saturday.

Cindy reported that she received the form for the family we are sponsoring. There are two boys and one girl and she will go shopping this weekend and we must wrap at the next meeting, December 8th as the gifts must be delivered on December 10th. Please plan on being there to help wrap Thursday.

Mark Baumann stated that Share the Warmth will have its first sorting this Saturday.

Rodrigo reported that he had this 1st American Thanksgiving and liked the scalloped corn. He also spent a day with Ben Guthrie and enjoyed that. He is now living with Joseph and Mary and likes it very much.

The meeting ended at 8:03 pm.
