The meeting was brought to order at 6:40. Zoren reported that our speaker had to be rescheduled. He then introduced our guests; Leah, Mark Baumann's wife and Michael Jimenez a past Rotarian from Henrietta who now lives in Trumansburg.

A Thank You was read from Shelterbox for our donation of one box for the Philippines. Ben G. will find out the tracking number so we will know where our box was finally sent.

It was noted that the Christmas Bureau will be needing help on the 21st for distribution of the gifts. The distribution will begin at 9 am if anyone would like to come and help.

Bell ringing schedule will be finalized by Zoren and list sent out to all.

Shelly announced that our two candidates for Youth Exchange were approved and Makila Seamon will be going to Paraguay and Cassie Proctor will be going to France.

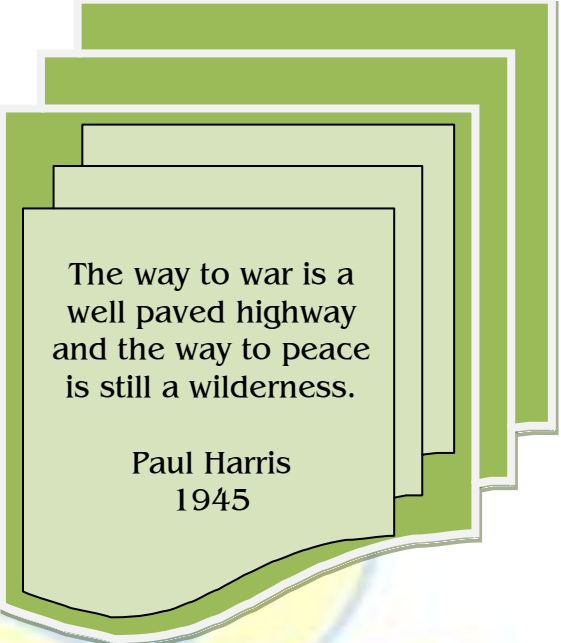

Ben C. talked about an International project in Turkey for an EEG machine. A motion was made and passed to give $500 toward the project. It was also stated that we will consider giving more if it is needed at a later date.

Cindy and Peggy are doing the Holiday Dinner next week and will need to know who will be coming so enough food will be available. Several members are bringing extras and Kym is doing the decorations. We will be using the big dining room for our meal. All host families are invited. Please let Cindy know, if you haven't already, if you are coming and how many guests.

Cindy next reported that with the help of Michael and Char McGuire she was able to get $276 worth of clothing and toys for our Christmas Bureau family. Then the meeting was adjourned and the wrapping began!!

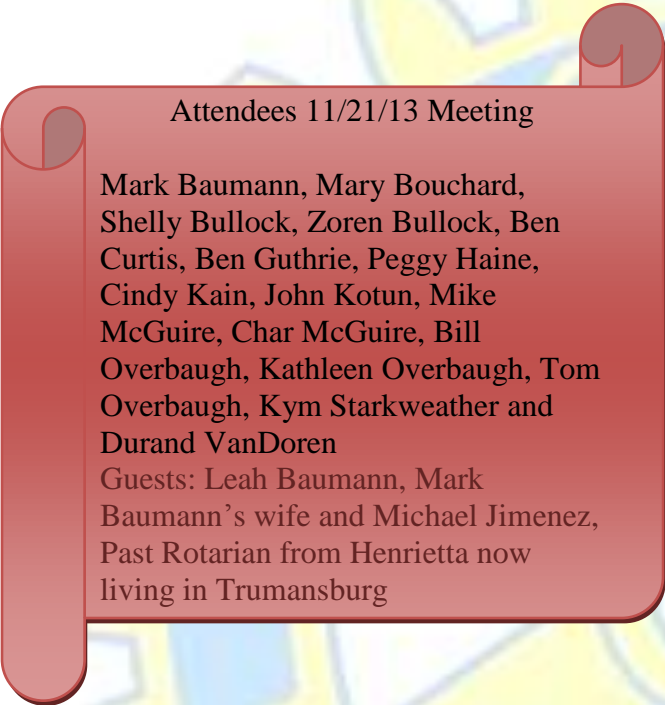

Meeting was adjourned at 8:00.
