President Scott started the meeting with our guest speaker, Melissa Bryant, which Mike McGuire introduced. Melissa is a Special Education Teacher at Trumansburg. Melissa talked about three different projects that she has her students doing.

1. The Localvore Club was making enough lunches at school to sell to the teachers every week. The money raised was used to go on local field trips. Check out their blog site Tburg Cooks Local
2. They had a bake sale and raised $1280 for Water for Sudan.
3. They have a sister school in Zambia and Melissa is going there this August to help build the school.

It was a very interesting presentation.

Cindy told us that she was asked by the Watkins Glen Rotary if we wanted to help man information booths at the NASCAR race August 5-7. Our club would get $7 per man hour worked that weekend. The club decided to go ahead and do it depending on the information we get from Watkins. Cindy will contact them for more information.

Peggy has talked with Shur Save and the Supermarket Sweeps will be held April 20th. She will bring the tickets to the next meeting.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:00 pm.
