A big THANK YOU to Kathleen Overbaugh to took the minutes for me.

Mark presented Mary Bouchard with a sponsor pin for sponsoring Joseph Barrett for membership. We are one new member away from Bronze Recognition

Leadership seminar, March 7 – Bill and Darlyne are going.

BOCES recognition awards night – We usually contribute $250. We need to decide on this.

May 16 is the Community Garage Sale. Our club has been asked to cook Chicken BBQ at Farmer's Market. An historical marker on King Street will be presented during the Garage Sale. Discussion about how many chickens to cook? Tabled – Mark will check on what other groups will be selling food. We are considering pre-sales. Darlyne offered to sell pre-sale tickets at Life's So Sweet.

Mike McGuire is now on the Chamber of Commerce Board, which reminds us to pay our dues for 2015.

Mar 12 – Lennart on schedule for his program

Mar 28 – Oneonta – District Assembly and Grants Management Seminar. There will be a second program on April 18 in Dryden High School.

Duran VanDoren – his Winter Blast party is Saturday night 6-10. Bring a pie.

New Business – Darlyne shared news that she has collected $150 at her Ithaca Life's So Sweet store for RI's End Polio Now campaign.

Sunday the Robotics Club will have a celebration at the Rongo 2-5.

Libations (for Ulysses Library) at Americana Winery on May 13. This is the 80th year for our library, and they will be celebrating 1930's.

Mark discussed a RI pilot program for innovative clubs. He suggested some brainstorming to come up with new ideas about service projects in our community.

Chamber of Commerce may have some projects in mind

Taking Care of T-burg
