Guests at tonight's meeting were Marvin Pritts, Professor at Cornell and his wife Allison and Patricia, a friend of Mark Baumann's

Darlyne thanked Bill for preparing dinner.

Marvin Pritts gave a presentation on the history of Smith Woods. It was interesting to know that there are many different species of trees and how they grow and why some grow faster than others. They are also adding a fence to help keep the deer out. Marvin then told us that Grassroots bought land butting up to Smith Woods and said that Smith Woods offered to buy a small tract of land along the edge as to preserve the woods, but Grassroots wouldn't take less than $350,000 for 8 acres so now there will be campers along the edge of the woods.

There was a question and answer afterward and several community residents in attendance asked questions along with the members.

Darlyne reminded us that March 1st will be a business meeting before we adjourned.

The meeting ended at 7:55.
