Our guests for the evening were Ethan Cramton, Molly Rider and Jordan Bailey from the Big Friend/Middle Friend organization. They started the meeting by giving a presentation on how the BF/MF works. Most of the money they make goes towards travel for the students so they can experience different life skills that are out there. Our club will be hosting a BBQ on April 30th for them. We are encouraging them to try to sell advance orders, if possible. The price will be: $9 for a dinner and $6 for a half and they will be serving at 11:30 am.

Peggy reported that we made close to $1400 on the Supermarket Sweeps. The winner, Sonja Croft, was very prepared and she ran for $570.22.

Ben Curtis went over the golf tournament that is coming up in July and asked everyone to start looking for gifts now, then we aren't so rushed at the last minute.

He also asked that those who have not given to the Foundation, do so soon so we can stay 100%.

We then talked about Visioning and our Mission Statement was passed.

The meeting ended at 8:05 pm.
