President Bill opened the meeting by introducing our guests, Kimberly Bill, Interim Superintendent for Trumansburg School System, and Beverly Cleveland, who will be joining our club. Bill next thanked Peggy for coordinating the 90th anniversary celebration and Mike McGuire for dinner.

Cindy showed the club the Free Press and it had an article on our club and a picture of Mike Jimenez and his daughter working one of our chicken BBQs. He was promptly fined $5.

Everything was in order for the Big Friend/Middle Friend BBQ this Saturday, April 29th.

Ben Guthrie reported that Screenagers was a success.

Kimberly went over the proposed school budget for 2017-2018 school year and Mike McGuire passed out the bios of the candidates for the three school board vacancies. There was a Q & A afterward.

It was noted that Sue Stein wants to talk to our club about the binoculars for the school. Also, Deb Jones of the Community Science Institute, wants to give a presentation to our club.

The meeting ended at 8:00.
