The meeting was brought to order at 6:31. President Shelly reminded us that we have only one more week to sell the Supermarket Sweeps tickets. She has made arrangements with Shur Save to let us sell tickets tomorrow evening, Friday, between 5-8 and Saturday between 10-2. If anyone is interested in selling tickets at any of those times please feel free to show up and help. Some have already volunteered but more is needed and not all slots are filled. Check with Shelly to find out what slots are available.

Shelly also reminded us of the upcoming District Assembly and Grants seminar. It is all free and it is being held in two different places on two different dates, Saturday, April 20th in Delhi and Saturday, April 27th in Dryden. Just go on the web page and check out the details. Please let Shelly know if you are planning on going so she can submit your name.

Our featured speaker for the evening was our own Tom Overbaugh who gave a presentation on his car race in Mexico. It was his plan to do this for 5 years and finish at least one race and he did that on his final try. He presented a slide show of the route he took and what the race entails. It was very interesting.

Meeting adjourned at 8:13.
