5/21/15	Club Assembly
5/28/15	Guthrie
6/4/15	Club Assembly

Past President Zoren conducted the meeting in President Mark's absence. Shelly introduced the speakers for the evening. They were Mallory Evans and Amy Little from Thompkins County Relay for Life. Mallory told u about what it is like to have a team participate in the event and encouraged us to form a team. The Relay for Life will take place on July 11 at Ithaca College.

Ben G. asked if we should send the money for the Shelterbox as agreed upon at the last meeting. The consensus was to send the money.

A motion was then made to send the $1000 received from the Cooperstown Rotary, $1000 from our club plus a $250 anonymous donation to Nepal for immediate relief help. This motion passed.

Bill reminded us that a BBQ was being held at Stewart Park for their Revitalization Project this coming Saturday, May 9 and any help would be appreciated.

Zoren also reminded us that our club has a chicken BBQ coming up on May 16th. Several of us will be out of town for the District Conference. Zoren passed around a sheet asking those who will be in town to sign up. So far Peggy, Ben G., Mary Guy-Sell and Mike Jimenez have said they can help. Anyone else who can please contact President Mark.

Cindy read a letter of resignation from Kym saying that her life has now taken another path and is thankful for Rotary and all that it has done for communities both here and abroad.

Editor's note: Thank YOU, Kym, for all that you have done to help our Rotary Club.

Lennart reported that he played golf every day this past week and they have won all their games so are. He also changed host families and is enjoying this one, too.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:58.
