The meeting was called to order at 6:35. President Shelly welcomed back Rotary Exchange Student, Rachel Pauch, from her year in Germany. Rachel presented Pres. Shelly with the Rotary Club Flag from Germany. Rachel told us that she will give her presentation of her year abroad on July 11th.

Thank you letters were read from Tompkins County BOCES for our $300 contribution towards their year-end awards and from Trumansburg Food Pantry for our $1000 contribution.

A letter was also read from the Shelter Box organization asking us for a donation. This will be discussed at a later meeting.

Mark told us that the speaker for next week will be Dakota Potenza from Renovus Energy. He will speak on Solar and Wind Power.

Frank reported that the RYLA students will be here next week, also.

Peggy and Ben G. told us that the Rotary County Social will be held June 27th at the Conservatory. The theme will be "A Taste of Trumansburg"

Cindy reminded everyone that our yearly dues will be coming due on July 1st and they will still be $100 with the club subsidizing the remainder.

Two multiple Paul Harris Fellows were "pinned". They are Frank Zgola a 2x Fellow and Cindy Kain a 3x Fellow.

Pres. Shelly asked Marianna what her favorite memory was of school and she said the Drama Club, Model UN and learning what you want.

When Sebastian was asked he said it was playing sports and being awarded the MVP in Soccer.

Rachel was also asked about her German school and she responded that it was the friends she made.

Shelly also told us that Sebastian and Marianna are free until July 1st if anyone would like to take them for the day.

Meeting adjourned at 7:35.
