New schedule coming soon

The meeting was called to order by Mark Baumann, incoming President, in Zoren's absence.

Tom announced several awards that Trumansburg received at District Conference:

From Rotary International – an award for Highest Retention Rate of members, Highest Growth Rate percentage, and Highest Growth for small clubs

District Awards – Highest number of new members

He summed up the district conference – everyone was having fun (maybe that started with the flag ceremony that was a bit unrehearsed). Father Michael Oleksa, Anchorage, Alaska, was a wonderful speaker who spoke about miscommunication between cultures.

Ben Curtis discussed the status of our Foundation giving in our club and reported that we have 100%. He brought us up to date on the Nepal project with the big news being that Cortland Noon is giving enough money so we have the funds needed to go forward with the project.

He also reported on the golf tournament. There is a potential of 30 teams, the highest number ever. We still need prizes.

Kathleen Overbaugh reported that she submitted the grant for the Robotics teams. Bob Ross answered with a few questions, one of which was how much money the club would donate. She committed the club to $500, but never had a chance to ask the club first. Ben Guthrie made a motion to commit $500 to the Robotics Club; Peggy Haine seconded the motion. All in favor. Mark suggested we encourage the club to help us with a fund raiser – they can help with the golf tournament on July 11.

BBC next Saturday, which is graduation day in Trumansburg.

Discussion about Books of the World. Interlaken has some books, as will Trumansburg schools.

Liza Gonda said "Goodbye" to the Rotary club and invited everyone to come to the airport on Friday to see her off.

Meeting adjourned.
