The meeting was called to order at 6:40. Outgoing President, Zoren, did a recap of his year as President. He learned to love the BBQs that we had and learned how to flip and dab with the best. He was happy for the grants we received, enjoyed our membership increasing, learned more about Books for the World and how to pack them and now he is just happy to sit back and watch. Zoren then passed the gavel to the new incoming President Mark Baumann.

Zoren and Mark

Mark told the group that he was glad to take over. He went over his agenda for the year. He would like to engage the community with BBQs, another Supermarket Sweep, the Christmas Bureau and Youth Exchange. He would like to involve the entire club in our activities so there is no burnouts and we can continue to serve. And last Mark would like to maintain the projects we are doing.

Cindy remarked on the shiny bell which PDG Tom had polished for the District Conference.

Cindy also reminded us that our dues are due July 1 and she is willing to set up a payment plan if you cannot afford to pay the $100 all at once. The question arose as to what our dues go for and Tom explained that half the dues go to Rotary International for administrative and organizational costs and part goes towards the Rotarian magazine and the other half goes to the District.

Cindy will be bringing in the directory information to check for 2014-2015 directory.

Ben C. reported that we got two new teams this week and now have a total of 14 paid teams and 2 comp teams so we should have a full field this year.

We are all set for the BBQ on Saturday, June 28th and the BBQ will be to raise funds for Books for the World.

Kym suggested we buy a new eagle for the flag at the Legion. It was agreed that she should do that.

Alex told us she is going back to Australia Monday.

Kathleen told us that Liza made it home ok and is with her grandfather who is very sick.

Ben C. would like to recognize Ann Russell, posthumously, with a Paul Harris Fellow and needs to get the information to do it.

Meeting adjourned 8:00.
