On a most delightful summer evening our Rotary meeting was held at Bill and Darlynn Overbaugh's home. We all enjoyed the wonderful chicken dinner prepared by Bill and Darlynn.

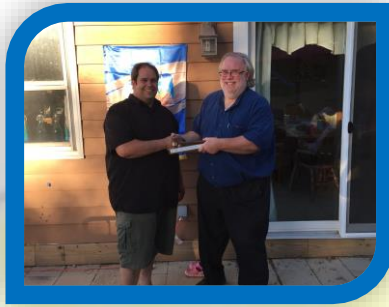

Kathleen discussed the e-mail that she had sent out about helping with a project to buy mattresses for children so they have a place to stay to go to school and not have to walk back and forth. She will look into this further.

Frank Zgola reported that Zack Ives, a former RYLA student was honored at Watkins Glen for his athletic contributions and Casey Proctor, a former Youth Exchange Student, graduated as Salutatorian of this year's Trumansburg graduating class, and is now in the Philippines and is planning on going to Cornell in the fall.

Ben Curtis reported that we now have 22 teams confirmed and also have a sponsor for every hole. He also confirmed that we do have 1st and 2nd place prizes confirmed, too.

President Scott's last official act was to pass the gavel on to incoming President Bill Overbaugh.

For Bill's first official act, he presented his mother with her Paul Harris +4 and +5 pins.

Bill stated that he wants to work more on the Visioning process and wants to meet the goal of 3 new members this year.

Other goals that Bill stated are:

Working on a local project in Trumansburg

Having an agenda every week sent out before the meeting so you will know what is happening that week.

Starting the meeting on time and ending by 8 pm.

And last but not least...having a good time in Rotary.

Bill is very excited about the upcoming year and being a part of it.

The meeting ended at 7:55 pm.

The final ringing of the bell to end the meeting.
