- *Increased capacity of an Addiction treatment center in Binghamton.
- *Sent young people to a Teen Institute on drug awareness to learn techniques for keeping kids off drugs.
- *Set up 4 drop boxes for safe drug disposal.
- *Created a multi county media campaign with many radio and tv station spreading the word. Also created a Facebook page seen by 130k people and a Rotary brochure!

Joann hopes we next orchestrate drug take back days. Cortland County has been doing these since 2010 and the last one collected a 2000 pounds of drugs! Rotary should help advertise these events.

2. Pres Mike urged people to pay their dues and donate to the Foundation ASAP.
3. Frank related the TST BOCES student of the year interview. The award ceremony is tonight and a $1k award and two $500 awards are to be given. A deserving Groton student won. He thanked the club for contributing
4. Kathleen reported on our finances.
5. Mark said the bbq last week sold the 160 chicken halves with a rash of sales to Rotarians at the end...
6. Mary G gave us a golf tournie update: she raised $500 selling raffle tickets at the recent bbq. One team has registered so far but have had many inquiries. However, some team regulars won't be with us this year. We will do a chicken bbq to feed the golfers. Time to act make your calls, sign some teams!
