8/20/15	Club Assembly

The meeting started with Cindy introducing her guest, Frank Ryan, who was visiting from Florida.

Mark Baumann reminded us that Adopt-A-Highway cleanup was scheduled for this Saturday, July 25th at 8 am meeting at Not My Dad's. Please make sure you wear good shoes, long pants and heavy gloves.

Mark then spoke on being the new Treasurer and how he is looking forward to working with the finance committee.

Peggy read us an article in the Free Press about the golf tournament.

Kathleen reported that she is talking to several people in the community about projects we can do.

Shelly reminded us that the scrap metal collection is this weekend at the Shur Save.

Mary Bouchard contacted the Rotary club in Thimphu, the capital city of Bhutan, to find out their needs. They are looking to purchase two dialysis machines at around $30,000 each.

Mary also reported that our guest speaker from a few weeks back, Lusine Mehrabyan from Armenia, was approved for a Rotary scholarship for two years, worth $70,000, to study at Cornell.

Tom Overbaugh suggested a Visioning session with the club and they all agreed. Mary B. is looking into dates to hold that session.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:55.
