The meeting was started with a Paul Harris Fellow +2 presentation to Darlyne Overbaugh.

Our guest tonight was Phil Courtney, who just moved here from Yuma, Arizona where he was a member of the Yuma Rotary.

Shelly told us that Ann Southerland's daughter is going on a mission trip to Guatemala and to raise money for the trip they are having a scrap metal drive July 24-26 to help pay for the trip. The Southerland's have been a host family for our club.

Pres. Scott read a letter from Tompkins Co. Lakers asking for a donation and the club decided to decline.

Mary Bouchard and Joseph Barrett brought us a club banner from, the Rotary Club of Thimphu (capital city) meeting in the country Bhutan. They are a newly formed club and she is going to help them look into a Global Grant to buy a dialysis machine that is much needed.

Mark B. reminded us that we need to do the Adopt-A-Highway soon and the date that we picked will be July 25th.

Also think of another BBQ date we can do to raise some more money.

Jerry Dietz has contacted us with a date for the Ride For Life. It will be September 12th.

Ben Curtis told us that the golf tournament is coming together and we will be ready for tomorrow's event.

Ben also informed us that the Binghamton Non Rotary sent us a check for $1000 towards the Nepal project.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:56.
