The meeting was brought to order by President Shelly.

Darlynne Overbaugh informed us that Life's So Sweet is having its opening on September 29th and 30th. It will be in conjunction with the Apple Harvest that will be going on as well. She is asking non-profit groups to have a booth at her store to play children's games and win prizes. A motion was made to man a booth on Saturday, September 29th from noon to 6 pm. A signup sheet will be available at the next meeting and if there is enough interest, we will do it for Sunday, also.

Next Frank Zgola introduced our guest speaker, Frank Towner, Director of the Ithaca YMCA. Frank told us a little history of the Y and some of its resources. The Y held its first meeting in 1868 at the Cornell Library. It then moved to downtown Ithaca and the building burnt in 1978 and they finally relocated to Graham Rd. in 1982.

There are many incentives going on at this time and one of them is a free membership to all 1st graders in Tompkins County. They are also working on creating an outdoor facility for teaching about the outdoors with no buildings, just learning about nature.

Right now they would like to put in a warm water pool for the many health and wellness programs they offer.

If you would like to learn more about the Ithaca YMCA you can go to www.ithacaymca.com and get the schedule of events, membership and many other programs the YMCA has to offer. Such as a program on Wednesday, September 19th called Sleep for Success. This program will deal with why proper sleep will be helpful in your success and health.

The Aides Ride for Life BBQ is all set and everyone is ready. All those participating should be there at 1 pm or later to help. It is being held in Stewart Park at the large pavilion.

Joel Podkaminer has the signup sheets for the Chris Bond Run and right now looks like everything is going along well. A signup sheet for volunteers for the run will be passed around next week. Please don't forget to look in your basement or closet to find some "prizes" for the run. Cindy will post the web site address when the site has been updated.

Mary Bouchard told us that Sandy Lisk (Durand's wife) has asked if anyone from the club would like to help paint one of the rooms in the Conservatory this weekend. If you would like to help, please contact Sandy at skl@lightlink.com.

Joel A. told us that he went to Sebastian's soccer meet last week and commented on how good Sebastian was as a goalie even though they did lose he made some good saves.

Meeting adjourned.

HAPPY DOLLARS

Ben C. had $1 for check for hail damage to his car from last week's storm.

Joel P. had $1 for the hail storm.

Kym had $2, one for having a YMCA in India when she was there and they actually had toilet paper in the bathrooms. The second was for signing up a friend for the Chris Bond Run.

Joel A. had $1 for the free pass he got for the YMCA,
