The meeting was brought to order at 6:35. Meeting was brought to order by Past President Shelly in the absence of President Zoren. Shelly introduced our guests, Shirley Brown, Advisor for the Femtastics and Kelsey Broadfield, member of the Food Committee for the Pumpkin Fest.

The BBQ at the Pumpkin Fest was discussed and it was decided that the club would cook the chicken and the Pumpkin Fest would buy everything. They will presell 180 tickets for chicken dinners (that is one flight) and we will also cook hamburgers and hot dogs for them to sell. The festival runs from 10-2 on October 20th.

Mike will check into hot boxes for the chicken. They are pricey but well worth the cost.

Kym brought up the highway cleanup and it was decided that Saturday, September 28th we will meet at 8 am at Not My Dad's to do the cleanup, so mark your calendars.

October 3rd meeting Ben C. will discuss the Foundation and we will sign up for the dinner.

Cindy asked if we would like to give another basket for auction at the Foundation Dinner and it was agreed to do it and we are asking members to get something from the Trumansburg or Finger Lakes Region to put in the basket. We would like to have everything local to show off our area.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:05 pm.
