The meeting started with Mike Brainard giving us a recap of this week's progress with the Chris Bond Run. Some of the ads are running now on the radio. Mike did an interview with the Free Press. Joel Podkaminer has put out some yard signs. Tuesday Mike will meet with the race day people and report this Thursday. Mike then showed us the banner that came in for race day.

Mark reminded us that there will be a BBQ this Saturday, Sept. 27th. Everything is set for that.

Next week our District Governor, Pat Kriebel, will be here and we will meet with her at 6 pm for a short meeting before the regular meeting starts at 6:30.

More on the Apple Fest next week.

Our guest speaker this evening was Dave Smith from the Ulysses Historical Society. Dave gave us a presentation on Trumansburg and surrounding areas during the late 1800s and early 1900s. He showed slide of the railroad that ran through town, the many hotels that were here and several now closed post offices around the area. It was a very interesting presentation.

It was noted that Life's So Sweet Chocolates won an award for "Best Place to Satisfy a Sweet Tooth". Congratulations, Darlyne. Your fine will be due next week.

Andy spent the weekend with Shelly and Zoren and enjoyed going shopping

Lennart went with Zoren and Tom Overbaugh to the car races in Woodhull and also had a good week.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:40 pm.
