The meeting was brought to order at 6:34. Zoren reported that we have packed 3 2/3 pallets of books for Books for the World so far. The latest packing was last Monday and we all had a great time doing this.

Frank introduced the RYLA students and their families and gave a brief talk about RYLA and what it does and who have participated in past years. Both Saige and Kevin told us that they had no idea what to expect but it was a great experience. They gave us their daily schedule and never used their phone all week. They made great friends that they are sure they will have for a lifetime. At the end of the week they had a get together and some sang in the choir and some played musical instruments and some read their own personal writings.

One of the saying was "Lead to Follow and Follow to Lead".

Saige told us she won the Personal Growth Award.

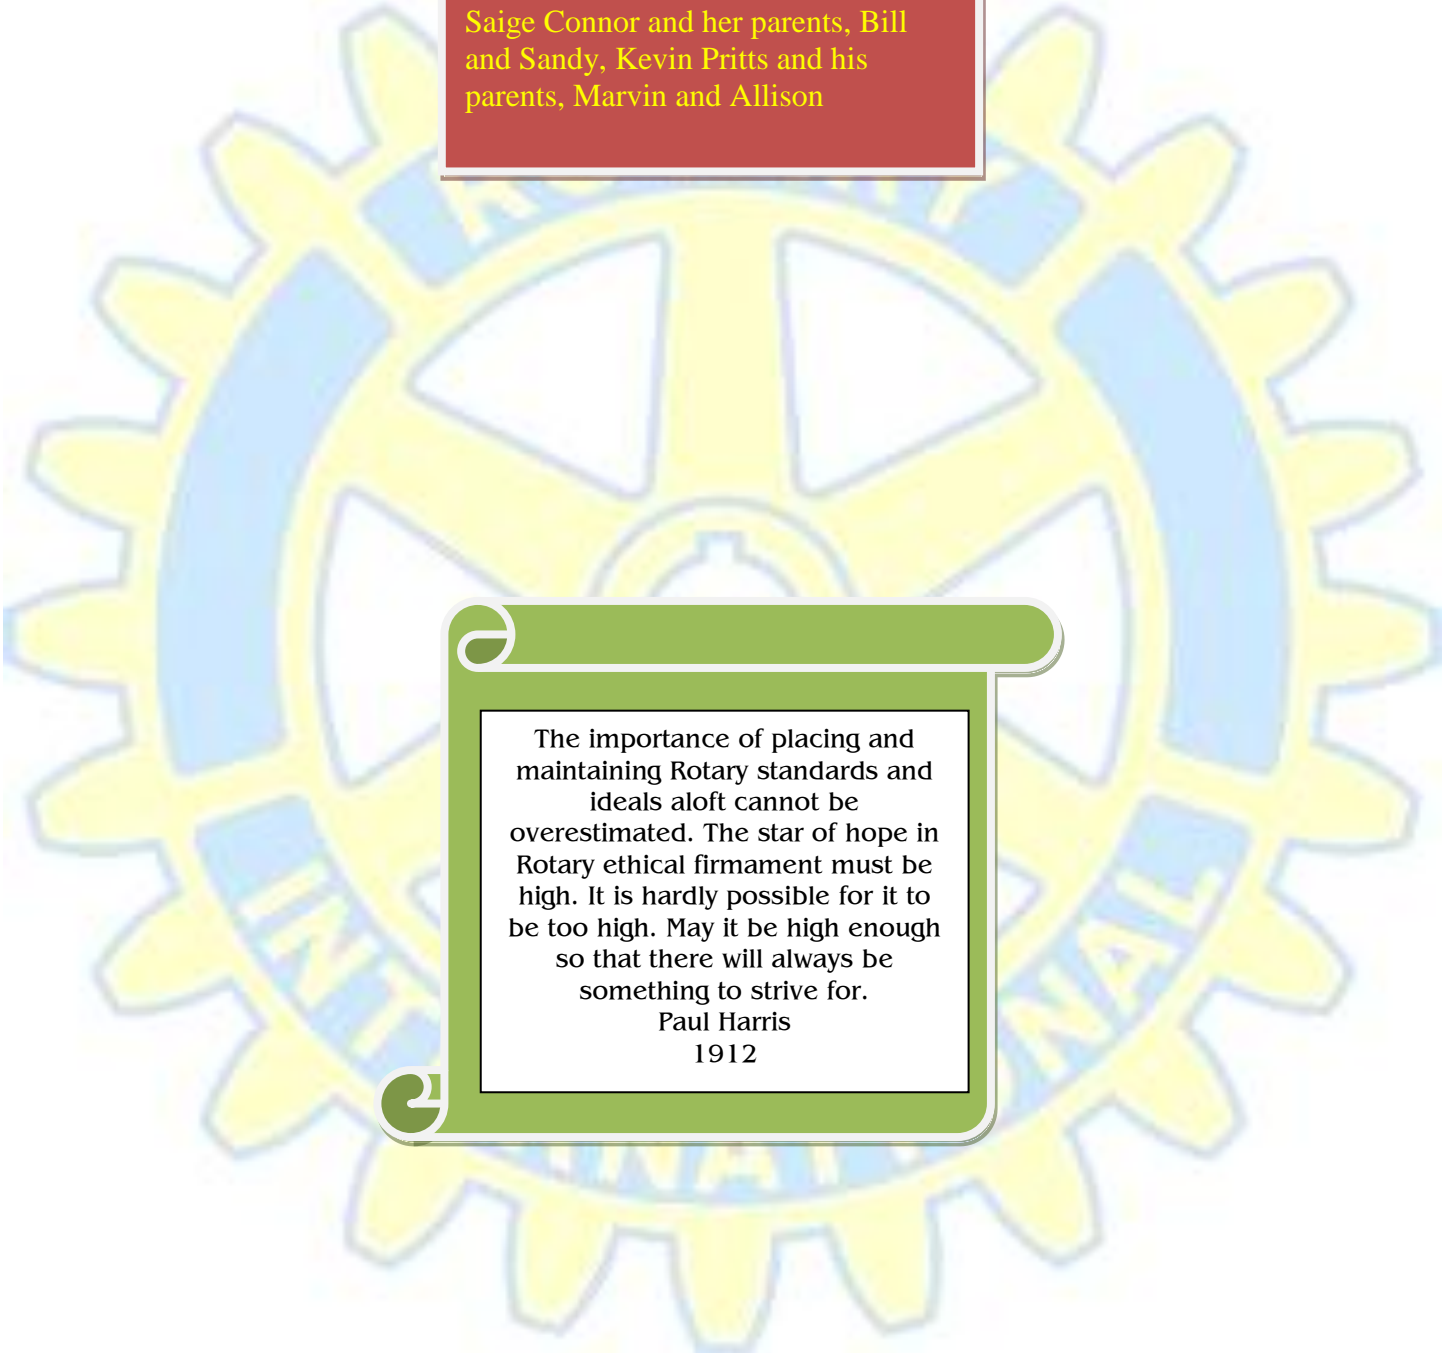

Kevin told us that when the RYLA camp was over Kevin's family, along with Saige, went to Guatemala to help an orphanage that now is housing 104 children. This is a project that Kevin's father has been doing for some time. The RYLA experience definitely helped with this.

Maria told us about her week and said the first day of school was nice. She was a little scared at first but got to like it as the day progressed.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:41 pm.

The importance of placing and maintaining Rotary standards and ideals aloft cannot be overestimated. The star of hope in Rotary ethical firmament must be high. It is hardly possible for it to be too high. May it be high enough so that there will always be something to strive for.

FOUR WAY TEST

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
