

News Both Fit and Unfit!

Guest Speaker:

Kristine Krush a Certified Interpreter for the deaf, presented our club with an informative overview of her 20 year occupation. Kristine graduated from Rochester Institute of Technology - National Technical Institute for the Deaf. Kristine is currently employed at SUNY Broome assisting deaf students in the classroom and also works as a freelance interpreter in and around our community. Kris discovered her passion for working with the deaf drawing on a personal family experience.

Fine Master:

Our President, Roy Cordero, was our fine master. Fines were issued to those Rotarians who had yet to sell their St. Patrick's Party tickets. Neil fined Bill Scannell for departing their lunch table. Ted was happy to have spent some time working together with his grandson over the weekend. Happy fines collected from and for Danielle and Rick for their smoking cessation. Steve Miller was happy that Neil was present at the meeting and numerous happy fines were thrown in for Steve Miller's national recognition as Time magazines nominee for Honda dealer of the year. Roy was happy that he was able to escape the ball crawl at Owego Gymnastics. A total of $54.00 in fines was collected.

Announcements:

- Our exchange student, Andre Pinto is doing great in school!! We are all proud of him!
- Sell those St. Patrick's Party Tickets and be on the lookout for email from Roy pertaining to our big event!! If you can't sell your tickets get them back to Roy immediately.
- Seek out St. Patrick's Prizes and donations. Bring gift baskets to Roy A.S.A.P. Can't get a gift basket?? Be creative and make your own! Plenty of idea's available on the Internet.
- All club members must bring 2 bottles of wine and a desert to the St. Patrick's party.
- Richard and Peter are working out the details for our new member recruitment event. All current members are responsible for providing new member recommendations no later than July 1st.
