Don's Joke Corner (Pardon another priest joke.)

A priest was invited to attend a house party. Naturally, he was properly dressed and wearing his priest's collar. A little boy kept staring at him the entire evening. Finally, the priest asked the little boy what he was staring at. The boy pointed at the priest's neck. When the priest finally realized what the boy was pointing at, he asked him, "Do you know why I am wearing that?" The boy nodded his head yes, and replied, "It kills fleas and ticks for up to three months."

Quote of the Day:

Guest Speaker: Brian Baldia, a chiropractor based in Johnson City, spoke to us about the benefits of chiropractics. He said one of its primary benefits was relief of the physical side effects of stress such as back pain, neck pain, headaches and the like. He recommends a regular "tune-up" as a good way to maintain health. He feels that chiropractic teams well with traditional medicine, each having its own strengths.
