

News Both Fit and Unfit!

Guest Speaker:

Jenn Small was our speaker today. Jenn works at the Association of Vision Rehabilitation. The facility is located in Binghamton, across from the Library. The business model is a hybrid: they offer Vision rehab services but also generate revenue thru a full scale paper conversion operation generating upwards of 10 million dollars per year. In house, a low vision clinic provides tests and clients can work with specialists to train and teach them with various devices designed to help them cope with low vision. Also on site is an adaptive living apartment where clients can receive specialized training. They also provide and employment and Career Services Counseling Center.
