President elect Ted, informed club a full page advertisement for the foundation dinner will cost $100 for a full page. Sargent Mike recommends new members become greeters at the door as a way to get to know the seasoned members a little bit more. Willow Point Nursing home duties take place this Sunday the 16th. Be there or be square. Dr. Ed needs a volunteer to host the Vestal Rotary, he offered but realized the whole club won't fit in the hot tub! Rick the Vigilantly director, needs a volunteer for March. Rob Flanders is organizing the coat drive at Kohls on December 27th. Carol and George are planning the food drive for December. Details still being sorted out.

Guests: John Butler

Fine Master: Rob Flanders won this weeks 50/50 for a whopping $24 Bucks! It was rigged though because his guest drew the ticket. Steve Day the previous week's winner was not in attendance, something about having to work. The Honorary Neil Guiles stepped in and had an axe to grind this week. Rob Flanders paid $3 for the blatant act of corruption winning the 50/50 and another $10 for having a anniversary. Bill had to pay $5 bucks for an anniversary as well. Carol was dinged $2 for disobeying Neil's orders as if she was an employee of his. Ted paid $2 for unknowing and unwillingly advertising Snap On Tools. Steve paid $1 buck for no sign yet. He protested for unfair treatment. Jim S. was fined for being on TV all the time he let Neil know that the bank will pay his fine. Rob W. Mike C. Rick, and Matt C. where all fined $1 for not realizing that Neil joined the club in 1943. Richard paid a happy fine of $5 because of the wonderful time and the Rotary Conference in Cleveland.
