

News Both Fit and Unfit

Guest Speaker:

Rob Lippolis and Terry Buczkowski from the Binghamton Devils Hockey Franchise were our speakers today. Two years ago, negotiations started between the New Jersey Devils and local representatives. The local ownership sold off the AHL franchise to the owner of the Ottawa Senators and a change was imminent. The AHL franchise of the NJ Devils was located in Albany. They are now ready to roll in Binghamton. The front office is a promo team, advertising and marketing team. The franchise is owned by the NJ Devils. The future looks very bright and no longer icy for hockey in Binghamton. The big unveil of the logo took place on July 27 and well over 900 attendees were there. New Jersey Devils also had the first overall pick in the NHL draft and picked up another 10 picks in the draft. Hockey has a bright future in Binghamton for now. There are many business packages available for tickets, seating, etc. The community has responded very well and the season is near.
