Guest Speaker: Mandy Webb – Broome Women Lead

Mandy Webb, representing Broome Women Lead, and one of its founding members as well, was our guest speaker today. BLW is a very new organization comprised of Broome Women who are leaders in our community and have come together to lead a combined effort to impact our community. They have no political agenda, no mandate or mission currently, but are allowing the direction of the organization to morph into its defining mission. BLW is a group of leaders of women, by women and for women. The organization is setting their direction and moving into volunteer opportunities, nonprofit and entrepreneurial opportunities as well. The first event that was held this year was attended by over 200 women. In surveying the group, the top four interests were: Community involvement, impacting community, inspiring the next generation and business networking. As this organization moves into the future and continues to find its footing and direction, there is no doubt the positive impact that it will have on bettering our community and the impact it already has had in its infancy.
