Today's speaker is Congressman Nathaniel Moran

Congressman Nathaniel Moran has deep roots in East Texas, having grown up in Smith County and graduated from Whitehouse High School, where he served as Senior Class President and captain of the football team. Inspired at an early age by a passion for public service, he went on to attend the United States Military Academy at West Point before earning a bachelor's degree, MBA, and law degree from Texas Tech University.

Before being elected to Congress in 2022, Congressman Moran spent more than two decades practicing law in Tyler and serving his community through numerous civic, educational, and nonprofit organizations. His public service career includes serving on the Tyler City Council, as Mayor Pro Tem, and later as Smith County Judge, where he oversaw county administration, budgeting, emergency management, and judicial responsibilities.

Congressman Moran and his wife, Kyna, have been married for more than 23 years and are the proud parents of four children. Today, he represents Texas's First Congressional District in the U.S. House of Representatives, where he continues his commitment to serving the people of East Texas and advancing the values of faith, family, and public service.
