HUMANITARIAN RELIEF FOR SYRIA

In their thousands, the people of Syria have been forced to flee to the safety of refugee camps in Turkey. Thousands more arrive each day. Up to now the Government of Turkey has valiantly attempted to meet their emergency needs.

* Overall assistance to the refugees is coordinated by the Disaster and Emergency Management Presidency (AFAD).

* Refugees are accommodated in camps organized by the Turkish Red Crescent.

As Rotarians, we can help. At a meeting in Ankara, representatives from the Rotary clubs of New York and Ankara, and the President of AFAD, met to discuss how best to assist these unfortunate Syrian victims of violence. Winter is already here -- and cold hurts. Your support is urgently requested for this humanitarian relief. Funds are needed for:

- Family tents; Bedding (beds, blankets, pillows); Family kitchen sets
- Container baths and WCs; Methane ovens
- Nappies, sanitary towels, basic medicine, baby food and field hospital

Please help us to deliver these essential items to the tented camps at the Turkish border area by sending your contributions by direct transfer to one of the accounts below:
